

Since 2012 Desoma develops software solutions in the field of IP data and IP meta data with specialization in the sensitive business segment of real time data analytics where we are working with large corporations, utility companies and governmental entities for many years. Our solutions support as underlying technology various tasks in the Cyber Security field like ISO27001 controls, GDPR regulations as well as individual settings for data profiling, pattern analytics, cybercrime prevention and other cyber security and cyber defense scenarios in different industries like Finance, Transport, Telecommunications, Media and the Utility sector.

Onsite Engineer (f/m)

We are currently looking for an Onsite Engineer to join our technical team in Graz.

Responsibilities of the position:

- Independent implementation of our hardware and software solution at the customer
- Installation and configuration our software solution on customer provided hardware
- First and Second Level Support
- Maintenance visits at customer sites
- Documentation and follow up of occurring disorders or failures

WORK WITH US

Requirements for the position:

- Completed profound education in the field of IT (school, IT-apprenticeship or similar) or work-related experience
- Experience with LINUX based server systems
- Experience with Customer Contact
- Solution-oriented and self-confident appearance towards the customer
- Willingness to travel in Austria and/or international
- First experiences or basis-knowledge in IT networks (Junior level)
- English (spoken and written)

What you can expect from an employment at Desoma:

- The possibility to work in a dynamic and innovative environment
- The freedom to contribute to the team with all your personal strengths
- A comfortable and family-oriented corporate culture
- Flat hierarchies and flexible working hours
- An exciting business field as well as an attractive national and international customer network
- Central workplace as our office is located at Jakominiplatz
- 30 days annual leave

The collective minimum wage for this position will be € 2.338,- * 14 per year in accordance with our collective agreement ST1 based on a full-time engagement. But of course, we are willing to overpay and offer a market-compliant compensation according to your qualification and experience level.

If you fit our requirements and have interest in this position as well as working in the exciting field of cyber security and cyber defense feel free to contact us. We are looking forward to receiving your application.

Please send your application to:

jobs@desoma.org

www.desoma.org

Desoma GmbH

Jakominiplatz 12 (3rd floor) 8010 Graz, Austria

Get in touch with us via mail: jobs@desoma.org or call: +43 – 316 – 810 330

